FLOOR DEBATE

February 4, 2002 LB 93

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...executive branch ones that weren't statutorily put together. We have looked at some of those other kinds as well.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Have...do you...does the committee have a list of all executive branch created advisory boards that are currently functioning?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Some of them. A lot of them would be in that book that we put together this year that I should have had up on the floor with me maybe today. It's about this thick and some of them, a great many of them are in there. What we were suggesting, and I'm glad that you mentioned the work that went into it. I really should acknowledge staff who did...I mean they did the leg work on this. They did the hard work on this, and also thank Legislative Research and the committee because it is a process. But there are some of...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...those boards and commissions in that book.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: To continue the dialogue, but one couldn't look at that list and be certain that all ongoing executive branch advisory committees are included on there.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Probably not, yes, you are correct.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. Senator, the...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I would like to add that staff says the majority of them are. She thinks pretty much all of them. So...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. The...the description on the green sheet of what the...of what the bills do, is that a complete description? I mean...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Pretty much. Yeah.
